To provide a report of its findings with recommendations to the President and Chief Executive of the Centre within the time frame stipulated under the Act,

And to do all such acts and things as may be necessary to carry out the objectives of these directions.

X. PROCEDURES FOR RESOLUTION, SETTLEMENT OR PROSECUTION OF ACTS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The Centre is committed to providing a supportive environment in which the concerns of sexual harassment shall be resolved as follows:

A. Complaints

1. Complaints may be made by the complainant or, if the complainant is suffering from any incapacity, by any person authorised by her, by a co-worker, or by a member of the National Commission for Women.
2. Aggrieved persons are encouraged to immediately upon the concurrence of such incident bring the matter to the attention of any member of the Internal Committee or any person designated by the Internal Committee for the purpose in the premises. Six copies of the complaint are required to be given to the Chair of the Internal Complaints Committee who will then circulate to other members.
3. At the complaint stage the complainant is required to only state:

- i. Complainant's name
Harasser's name
and brief facts in relation to incident(s)
Reason for delay in reporting, if any
 - a. Within a period of 10 days of the meeting, the complainant should submit a detailed narrative of the incident, list of documents, if any, by which the charges are proposed to be substantiated, list of witnesses, if any
- 4. If a complaint is received by a person appointed by the Internal Committee, such person shall forthwith and not later than 24 hours forward the complaint to the Chair of the Internal Complaints Committee.
- 5. There will be no reprisal or retaliation against anyone that makes a complaint or reports an observation of possible harassment or discrimination based upon the bonafide belief that there has been a violation of this policy.
- 6. Complaints should be bonafide and should ordinarily be made at the first given opportunity. Delay in doing so will need to be satisfactorily explicated.
- 7. All complaints shall be kept strictly confidential.
- 8. The Internal Committee will maintain a register to endorse the complaints received and keep the contents confidential except for use for a discreet investigation if deemed necessary.

B. Investigation of complaint

- 1. Upon receipt of a complaint, one of the copies of the Complaint shall be given to the Respondent who has the right to file a reply to the same along with a list of witnesses or of evidence within 10 days of the receipt of the same. The respondent, complainant and witnesses shall be intimated at least 72 hours in advance in writing of the date, time, venue of the inquiry proceedings.
- 2. The Internal Committee shall investigate the matter promptly and thoroughly in accordance with the guidelines provided for conducting internal investigations and in accordance with the principles of natural justice. The respondent and the complainant should each be accorded a full and fair hearing with all reasonable opportunities to present their respective cases. During the pendency of the inquiry proceedings, the complainant and the respondent and their witnesses shall not be brought face to face so as to ensure freedom of expression and freedom from intimidation. Witnesses may also be called by either party. If the complainant does not wish to depose personally due to embarrassment or fear, a statement may also be accepted by another person if permitted by the Internal Committee.
- 3. All statements made orally before the Internal Committee by Employees, witnesses or other persons in relation to an investigation shall be minuted and signed by person making the statement.
- 4. It shall be incumbent on every Employee to respond to queries of the Internal Committee honestly and present the facts in an objective and unbiased manner. Deliberately withholding information or providing incorrect facts shall be deemed to be misconduct and shall be punishable accordingly.
- 5. The investigation shall be carried out in terms of the applicable guidelines for conducting internal investigations. All investigations shall be fair and objective with detailed notes. All statements including those of the complainant, respondent and witnesses shall be recorded in writing, read out to the concerned party and signed.

6. The Complaint Committee have the right to terminate the inquiry proceedings or to give an ex-parte decision on the complaint, if the complainant or the respondent fails, without sufficient cause, to present herself or himself for three consecutive hearings convened by the Chairperson, as the case may be, provided that such termination or ex-parte order may not be passed without giving a notice in writing, 15 days in advance, to the party concerned.
 1. In conducting the inquiry, a minimum of three Members of the Complaints Committee including the chairperson, as the case may be, shall be present.
 - a. The Committee shall complete the inquiry within 90 days of the date from which the complaint was received, except for reasons that the Committee shall provide in writing.
7. The parties shall not be allowed to bring in any legal practitioner to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the Complaints Committee.
 2. The Internal Complaints Committee shall conduct such investigations in a timely manner and shall submit a written report of its findings and recommendations to the President and Chief Executive of the Centre as soon as practically possible and in any case, not later than 10 days from the date of completion of inquiry. The President and Chief Executive shall act upon the recommendation within 60 days of its receipt by him.
