

Position: Research Associate, The Initiative for Cities, Economy and Society

The Initiative for Cities, Economy & Society at CPR is urgently looking for a research associate to support the Writing Urban India Fellowship. The candidate must have a masters degree in the social sciences and prior experience with supporting academic programs. We are looking for broad based research and exceptional writing, editorial and organizational skills for this position. Please apply by 29th December 2022. Send your CV to wui@cprindia.org